Offering Mass for a special intention is a long-standing tradition in the Catholic Church. It is usually considered that special graces are obtained for whom the Mass is said. Masses are offered for many reasons, for the souls in purgatory, in remembrance for someone who is deceased, or in honor of a birthday, or in thanksgiving for special blessings that we received. If you would like to have a Mass said for someone, please contact the Parish Office at 416-694-0382

Stewardship Reflection: 13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading: 2 Kings 4.8-12a, 14-16
2nd Reading: Romans 6.3-4, 8-11
Gospel: Matthew 10.37-42 – The Reward of a Disciple

Offering our Gifts for Others

In today's first reading we hear of a wealthy woman who would stop and provide a meal to the prophet Elisha whenever she saw him walking by. She recognized him to be a holy man and decided to go even more out of her way by providing a furnished room from Elisha to stay. This woman used her gifts and possessions to serve others. This should serve as a model of stewardship for all of us.

Let us ask ourselves, how do we use our gifts to serve others? The woman in the reading is described to be wealthy, so she was able to give from her material wealth to support the prophet. However, while we may not have the same material wealth as this woman, we all possess the wealth of our time. As stewards we should reflect on how we can use our time to serve Christ and the church. Perhaps one way is by offering our time to help with various ministries that take place over the summer months at the parish.

The reading tells us that for her generosity, the woman was prophesized to soon bear her first child. We too as stewards can look forward to the reward of our labours. We will receive the gift of joy in this life as we work towards the ultimate reward of eternal union with God in heaven.

Summary

The woman in the first reading was able to give from her material wealth to support the prophet Elisha. However, while we may not have the same material wealth as this woman, we all possess the wealth of our time. As stewards we should reflect on how we can use our time to serve Christ and the church.

St. Vincent de Paul Bundle Up collection

The weekend of July 3 and until July 8 (5 days), the collection truck will be in the parking lot to receive donations of gently used clothing and linen for the Society stores. This year we are also accepting worn and damaged clothing for resale to collectors. This redirects textiles away from landfill and generates income for our programs.

Our volunteers will be at the truck during mass times to assist you. At other times please leave your donations in the area designated by the truck. On weekdays, the parking lot will be accessible through the pedestrian gate only.

We take this opportunity to thank you for supporting the Society of St. Vincent de Paul and ask you to continue to give what you can when you pass the poor boxes at the doors of the church.

The Best Place to Celebrate Mass Is in the Parish

I remember being a young girl and going to visit an older family member. The thing that stands out in my mind is my mother reminding me and my sister that we had to behave. It was understood that behaviour that would be overlooked in our house would not be appropriate in this different place.

We all know from a young age that certain behaviours are best expressed in certain places. We also know that certain places are more conducive to certain behaviours. For example, if I were to make a lot of noise in a library, others would get angry at me because that is a place to quietly study and read. It is designed to foster that behaviour.

Seventy-two year-old Marta, recently widowed, moved from Argentina to live with her son and daughter-in-law in Toronto. Still grieving, she become a recluse in the house. At her family's encouragement, Marta started attending the Golden Age group at St. John Paul the Great Family Centre, a ShareLife-funded agency. Here she developed new friendships and loved interacting with the joyful religious sisters who run the program. Her love of life restored, she is now so active that her family asks why she is so often out of the house!

Prayer of Pope Francis in time of Pandemic

O Mary, you shine continuously on our journey as a sign of salvation and hope. We entrust ourselves to you, Health of the Sick, who, at the foot of the cross, were united with Jesus' suffering, and persevered in your faith.

“Protectress of the Roman people”, you know our needs, and we know that you will provide, so that, as at Cana in Galilee, joy and celebration may return after this time of trial. Help us, Mother of Divine Love, to conform ourselves to the will of the Father and to do what Jesus tells us. For he took upon himself our suffering, and burdened himself with our sorrows to bring us, through the cross, to the joy of the Resurrection. Amen.

We fly to your protection, O Holy Mother of God; Do not despise our petitions in our necessities, but deliver us always from every danger, O Glorious and Blessed Virgin.
