Christians all across United States and Canada have publicly and peacefully stood in prayer silently against the legalization of abortion over the years.

We believe that it is time for the church to fight for the life of the unborn to our aged society with spiritual weapons. As Our Lord asked of His disciples: "Could you not watch one hour with me?" (Mk 14:37).

Our nearest Life Chain campaign is at 155 Broadview Ave (St. John the Compassionate Ch), On October 4th from 2 to 3 pm.

3rd Annual Parish Ministry Conference

Clergy, parish staff, volunteers and religious partners are invited to the third annual Parish Ministry Conference, happening online on Friday, October 30 and Saturday October 31, 2020.

This year's conference will explore the theme, "Called to Be Saints," from St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians. Registrants can choose one of six ministry tracks: catechesis; family life; liturgy; maturing adults; ministers of care; and stewardship.

The conference will feature pre-recorded videos, livestreams, group discussions, networking opportunities and a virtual sponsor hall.

There will be two special speakers. Cardinal Thomas Collins, Archbishop of Toronto, will discuss what it means to live like a saint and he will take questions from participants. And Deacon Larry D. Oney will deliver a keynote address on the importance of discovering your own personal divine mission. Oney is an author, broadcasting, speaker, leader and permanent deacon for the Archdiocese of New Orleans.

Stewardship Sunday - 2020

Cardinal Thomas Collins, Archbishop of Toronto, has announced the institution of Stewardship Sunday as an annual occurrence across the Archdiocese on the 25th Sunday of Ordinary Time. The first Stewardship Sunday is on September 20, 2020.

Cardinal Collins has identified deep stewardship as an important pastoral priority for the Archdiocese of Toronto. The concept is woven throughout our Pastoral Plan. In addition, clergy and lay staff have been learning more about how each one of us can embrace stewardship as a way of life, recognizing that our time and talents can be shared with others to strengthen our parishes, families and community at large.

May we embrace this opportunity to share our time and talents in abundance, and be grateful for all that has been entrusted to us.

To mark the occasion, Cardinal Collins, authored the below homily on stewardship.

<https://www.archtoronto.org/media-centre/blog>

"A steward is a servant entrusted for a time with the goods of the Master. The steward uses but does not own these goods, and must eventually give an account to the Master for the way in which they have been cared for and made fruitful." - Cardinal Thomas Collins

Stewardship Reflection: 25th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Isaiah 55.6-9

2nd Reading: Philippians 1.20-24, 27

Gospel: Matthew 20.1-16 - The Laborers in the Vineyard

Summary: As stewards, we can sometimes fall into the same temptation of those in the Gospel of feeling that the gifts God has given us and our neighbour are not to our liking. However, we should strive to be grateful for the gifts we have received and even be grateful and praise God for the gifts of others. Let us strive to grow in gratitude to God for His many gifts in our lives and the lives of our fellow parishioners.
