3rd Annual Parish Ministry Conference

Clergy, parish staff, volunteers and religious partners are invited to the third annual Parish Ministry Conference, happening online on Friday, October 30 and Saturday October 31, 2020.

This year's conference will explore the theme, "Called to Be Saints," from St. Paul's First Letter to the Corinthians. Registrants can choose one of six ministry tracks: catechesis; family life; liturgy; maturing adults; ministers of care; and stewardship.

The conference will feature pre-recorded videos, livestreams, group discussions, networking opportunities and a virtual sponsor hall.

Hope and purpose are essential ingredients for a satisfying life. Learn from Deacon Larry Oney, our Parish Ministry Conference keynote speaker, about the importance of discovering your personal purpose and mission. Uncover all that God has in store for you and walk in your personal divine mission.

Interested in Cardinal Collins' take on holiness? Send your questions to Annalisa Parente at aparente@archtoronto.org by October 28 and we will present them to him during the live Q&A session.

October 3 & 4, 2020 – Twenty-Seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

Stewardship Reflection: 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

1st Reading: Isaiah 5.1-7

2nd Reading: Philippians 4.6-9

Gospel: Matthew 21.33-43 - The Parable of the Wicked Tenants

Praying at all times

“In everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.” These are the words from St. Paul’s letter to the Philippians that we hear in today’s second reading. Elsewhere in his letter to the Thessalonians he says “Rejoice always, pray without ceasing, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus for you.” St. Paul is urging us to pray in all circumstances and at all times.

But is it really feasible for us to pray at all times? While we may not be able to spend every moment praying in the chapel, we can still pray ceaselessly by offering up all of our acts as a prayer to God. St. Josemaria Escriva says that “You can be sure that it is through the circumstances of ordinary life, ordained or permitted by the infinite wisdom of divine Providence, that we come close to God ... To this I now add that your work too must become a personal prayer, that it must become a real conversation with Our Father in heaven”.

As stewards, we can pray and be in union with God through our professional work as well as our charitable works for the parish community. If we offer up these moments of work to God as a means to commune with Him, we will begin to live out St. Paul’s exhortation to pray ceaselessly. Let us strive to never forget the dignity and value of our work as stewards of Christ.

Summary

In today’s second reading St. Paul urges us to pray ceaselessly in all circumstances. While we may not be able to spend every moment in the chapel, we can still pray ceaselessly by offering up all of our acts as a prayer to God. Let us strive to intentionally realize the dignity of our professional work, and our work as stewards, as a means to be in communion with God.
